sities and indicated in the annual survey of engineering registration conducted by The Engineering Institute of Canada. Registration figures were obtained from university registrars, and were compiled at the institute's Montreal headquarters.

Also showing increases were the number of engineering freshmen, and the number of prospective engineering graduates in the spring of 1961.

* * *

Total engineering enrolment for the current university year is 14,940, an increase of 465 from last year. The number of engineering freshmen increased to 4,461 from 4,122. Graduates of the engineering classes of 1961, with no allowance for wastage, are estimated at 2,651 — an increase of 410 from 1960.

Civil engineering remains the most popular course. Of the 1961 graduates, 779 are in civil engineering courses, compared with 644 last year. Electrical and mechanical courses are the next most popular. There should be 644 electrical graduates, compared with 513 in 1960, and 508 mechanical graduates, compared with 438.

* * *

The following list includes other prospective 1961 engineering graduate totals, with the previous year's figures in brackets: Chemical 258 (244); Engineering Physics 218 (164); Metallurgical 62 (57); Mining 59 (53); Geology and Mineralogy 33 (26); Petroleum 24 (28).

Spartacus Is Running On and On

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Strange things were happening on the Spartacus set—Tony Curtis in a Roman tunic reciting poetry to a jazz background.

This served to confirm my suspicions that the roman epic is one of the wackiest film projects in recent times.

Production started in January, and there's a question if it will ever stop. "Oh, yes," commented an aide. "They're planning a combination finish - of - the-picture and Christmas party."

Not so, said Kirk Douglas, whose company is making Spartacus for Universal-International.

"But we're talking in terms of seasons now, not months," he said. "We will shoot through the summer and finish in the autumn."

* * *

He doesn't seem the least bit concerned that the movie runs on and on. Nor did Marlon Brando, whose One-Eyed Jacks finally finished after six months. Average for a big production is six to eight weeks. As one wag put it, this is what happens when the animals start running the zoo.

He defended the lengthy shooting schedule by saying it was a monumental chore to arrange schedules for such stars as Laur-

EDGAR SUMMERBY

Edgar Summerby, 70, died at the Hotel Dieu Hospital, Thursday, following a lengthy illness.

Deceased was born in Brockville, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Summerby. He had resided in Kingston for the past 60 years.

He is survived by his sister, Mrs. Edith W. Reid, Kingston.

Funeral will be held Saturday at 3.15 pm from the James Reid funeral parlors to Cataraqui Cemetery. Rev. Ernest Teskey, rector of St. Paul's Anglican Church, will conduct the service. Interment will be in Cataraqui Cemetery.

JAMES E. ABRAMS

The long life of James E. Abrams, former Verona resident, came to a close when he died at the age of 100, at his late home near Clayton, NY, March 24. He had been in good health and was alert until about two weeks before his death.

1949

A former lumberjack, river driver and railroad worker, he was born in Odessa, Jan. 8, 1849, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Abrams. His father, too, lived to the age of 100. His life was exactly two days longer than that of his son. A brother of the deceased, Howard, of Kingston, lived to be 93. Mr. Abrams once remarked that longevity came naturally to his family.

The funeral service was held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from his late residence, to the St. Lawrence Cemetery. Rev. Henry A. Bridges, St. Lawrence Methodist Church, conducted the service.

Surviving him are two daughters, Mrs. Lillian Emberley, Depauville, NY; Mrs. Robert Craib (Emma), Three Mile Bay, NY; two sons, Homer, at home, and William of St. Lawrence; two grandchildren, Mrs. Ralph Spencer (Dora), Depauville and Karl W. Emberley, Watertown, NY. Four nieces also survive. They are Mrs. Maude Jensen, Rochester, NY; Emma Abrams, Kingston, Mrs. Frances Truesdale, Verona, Mrs. Ernest Amey, Verona. His wife, the former Mary Jane Nesbitt, predeceased him 16 years ago.

The late Mr. Abrams worked farms in the vicinity of Verona for 30 years. He married in 1876. In 1904 he went to the United States and moved to his last farm home a year later.

He was a member of the Orange Lodge of Verona and an honorary member of Depauville Lodge AF & AM No. 688.

HOW MANY ACTS

By Robert I

It seems Premier Kennedy has 'spilled the beans' regarding his Government's proposed Charitable Gifts Act.

When Treasurer Frost introduced the legislation he insisted it was designed to assure that funds willed to charities were paid over in full. He said the aim was to see that charities were truly benefited.

Yesterday Premier Kennedy came right out and admitted just what the Opposition has maintained: the bill is aimed at collection of succession duties avoided through gifts to charity.

He said it should not be possible for "rich men, simply because they have the power of great riches, to escape the law."

That is indisputable. What is disputable is whether any government has the right to make

The Economics of F

By R. J. D

The Hon. Arthur Roebuck made a speech in the Senate a few days ago. How times have changed! I knew "Arthur" quite well in his younger days. He lived in Toronto—still does. I lived in the West at that time. When I dropped into Toronto, now and then, I called Arthur Roebuck, he took me to lunch. I did a fair share of the talking—so did he. Good Heavens, now he has changed!

He was a Liberal then, politically speaking, but somewhat left of Liberalism in his economic views. He was a single taxer, a follower of Henry George and a free trader. He stood, as far as possible, from the maudlin socialism of today. It's hard to measure the changes which take place in two friends as they grew older, years widening the gap between them. Changes which take place within our own minds are imperceptible. We see, sharply and clearly defined, the altered views of others. Our paths have diverged, I lunch with him no more, but sometimes there is, I confess, a wistful feeling, I wish I could meet again the Roebuck I once knew.

* * *

The Hon. W. R. Davies of Kingston spoke in the Senate on family allowances. He was rather critical of them. Senator Roebuck replied, quote from the text of his speech:

"Let those who are primarily concerned in business activity and who squawk about taxes not overlook the effect of the fact that by June the Government

free people are in — who care for nobody but themselves and for whom no other human being cares. DOROTHY DIX.

MRS. CHARLES JOYNER

SYDENHAM.—A long and useful life came peacefully to an end when Mrs. Charles Joyner passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George Freeman, Rosedale, on Tuesday morning, January 11th, at the age of 81 years. The late Mrs. Joyner was formerly Margaret Abrams, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Abrams, of Elginburg, and was married in 1875 to Charles Joyner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joyner, of Sydenham, who predeceased her fourteen years ago. ### WARNS PHILATELISTS

CAPE TOWN—(CP)—Pointing out the post office exists for something besides stamp-collectors, the South African Postmaster-General has declared "stunts" organized by philatelists are too onerous for his department.

LEOPARDS BUSY

NEW DELHI—(CP)—Leopards have taken heavy toll of livestock in the Garhwal Valley and Himalayan bears have descended on native villages and mauled many people, some seriously.

Ex-resident Of Odessa

Now 100 Jan 14 1949

JAMES E. ABRAMS, former resident of the Odessa district, celebrated his 100th birthday at the home of his son, Homer C. at Clayton, NY, a few days ago. A large number of neighbors called to extend their congratulations and to present gifts.

Although somewhat hard of hearing and a little lame, Mr. Abrams is enjoying good health. He sees without glasses and his mental faculties are alert.

A former lumberjack, river-driver and railroad worker, he was born in Odessa, Jan. 8, 1849, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Abrams. His father, a farmer and hotel operator, lived past the age of 100 years himself and died Feb. 19, 1915. A brother, Howard Abrams, Kingston, lived to be 93. He also operated the Verona Hotel.

MR. ABRAMS married the former Miss Mary Jane Nesbitt, Harrowsmith, Ont., and the couple worked farms in vicinity of Verona for three years. They moved to the United States in 1904 and moved to the present farm home one year later. Mrs. Abrams died March 16, 1933, at the age of 75.

After retiring from the active management of the farm, Mr. Abrams remained with his son, who is carrying on the property. He was a member of the Verona Orange Lodge before moving to the United States.

Mr. Abrams is an honorary member of Depauville, NY, Lodge No. 668, F and AM.

He has three children besides his son, Homer C., with whom he lives. They are William of St. Lawrence, NY, Mrs. Lillian Emberley of Depauville, NY, and Mrs. Robert (Emma) Craib; two grandchildren, Mrs. Ralph (Dora) Spencer, Depauville, NY, and Karl W. Emberley, Watertown, NY. Miss Emma Abrams, Kingston and Mrs. Frances Trousdale, Verona, and Mrs. Ernest Amey, Verona, are nieces.

Rain Has Fallen for UK Townsman Plan

LONDON — (KNS) — It always rains at Ocker Hill, Staffordshire (pop. 5,817). For six months it has gone on.

The 800 schoolchildren have had to give up their break on the playground.

Many people have applied for extra coal to dry their clothes in front of the fire. No one has got it so far.

"The rain" they say, "is like a fine fog. All the time."

* * *

REASON?—The two giant cooling towers at the electricity plant. The towers belch steam,
and the steam turns to rain.

Macintoshes are the order of the day, and housewives have to keep their windows shut. That's not all. Colds, 'flu and pneumonia victims increase every week, and the doctor is too busy to hold regular surgery hours.

So now people plan a protest meeting. They are going to ask the ministry of health to send a scientist down to find a way to stop the Weeping Towers of Ocker Hill.
